

A WIGGLY WORM

Tune: "Boom! Boom! Ain't It Great to Be Crazy?"

Yum! Yum! Don't you know I love apples?

Yum! Yum! Don't you know I love apples?

Red and green and yellow, too...

Yum! Yum! Don't you know I love apples?

Way up high in an apple tree, I saw two eyes look at me.

I reached for an apple; it started to squirm...oops! I found a wiggly worm!

Yum! Yum! Don't you know I love apples?

Yum! Yum! Don't you know I love apples?

Red and green and yellow, too...

Yum! Yum! Don't you know I love apples?

That wiggly worm is a friend of mine. We eat apples all the time.

I let him crawl back to that tree... hey! I see that worm looking at me!

Yum! Yum! Don't you know I love apples?

Yum! Yum! Don't you know I love apples?

Red and green and yellow, too...

Yum! Yum! Don't you know I love apples?
